TOP UM PHARMACY STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS, SCHOLARSHIPS

MISSOULA —

The University of Montana's School of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences recently honored 60 top pharmacy students, dealing out an array of awards from certificates and plaques to medals and scholarships.

Although students in the three-year professional program garnered most of the honors, several awards went to top students in the two-year pre-pharmacy program of basic science and general education courses required for admission into the professional program.

Scholarship winners from Missoula are

- Karen Harrison, a second-professional-year student who received a $1,000 Shopko Pharmacy Award.
- Cheryl Hermann, a second-professional-year student who won a $1,000 Wal-Mart Pharmacy Scholarship.
- Susan Wilson, a second-professional-year student who won a $1,000 GlaxoWellcome Pride in Pharmacy Scholarship.
- Mancia Ko, a first-professional-year student formerly of Hong Kong who received a $500 grant from the Montana State Pharmaceutical Association.
- Pam Barstow, a second-professional-year student who received a $500 grant from the Montana State Pharmacy Association's student aid fund.

Other Missoula winners are Craig Arneson and Shelia Croley, third-professional-year students who received School of Pharmacy Faculty Awards; Susan Anderson, a third-professional-year student who received a School of Pharmacy Award and a Student American Pharmaceutical Association-Academy of Students of Pharmacy Award; Melanie Moses, a third-professional-year student who received a Smith, Kline & Beecham Award — a plaque and one-year subscription to the Pharmacist's Letter; Joanne Steemers, a third-professional-year student who received a Merck Manual and Merck Index; and Brian Garnett, a third-professional-year student who received the School of Pharmacy Faculty Research Award.

Award recipients from Florence are

■ Ashley Quattlebaum, a first-professional-year student who received a $700 Roger E. Ackerly Scholarship and a $500 grant from the Montana State Pharmaceutical Association.

■ Jennifer Thompson, a second-professional-year student who received a $690 James Wedum Endowment Scholarship and a $500 Sidney J. Coffee Scholarship.

Keri Buelke, a sophomore from Hamilton, received a $690 James Wedum Endowment Scholarship

The School of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences offers bachelor's degrees in pharmacy and physical therapy and a master's degree in pharmaceutical sciences.
